SRHU/Reg./Int./2021-17

Date: 13th January, 2021

NOTICE

The constituent colleges/schools of the University for conducting practical classes have since been physically reopened in the month of December 2020. It is mandatory for all the students to physically attend the practical classes even if the theory classes are conducted in online mode. This had been conveyed to all the students by the respective Head of their constituent college/school.

It has been observed that inspite of repeated reminders, students are not attending the practical classes although all the necessary protocols of the Central Govt./State Govt. for prevention of COVID-19 are being ensured by the University and its constituent colleges.

All the students are hereby informed that the University shall not be conducting any examination in online mode.

The students, at large, are advised to attend the practical classes in person so that they are eligible to appear in University examinations. Any student who is found absent in University examinations or is not eligible to appear in the University examination due to shortage of attendance, shall be treated 'Absent' and 'Attempt' will be counted. Such students shall not be provided an opportunity to appear in 'Special Examination'.

A student who is unable to appear in University examinations, in full or partially, on account of COVID-19 positive shall be provided an opportunity to appear in 'Special Examination' without counting of 'Attempt' subject to the condition of submission of COVID-19 positive report (RTPCR). No additional fee for 'Special Examination' shall be charged by the University.

This bears approval of the competent authority.
