- C. WHEREAS both the parties knows very well the importance of proper diagnosis of disease, good treatment and timely referral/transfer of patient for appropriate care and treatment.
- D. WHEREAS for providing patient a proper diagnosis, good treatment and in case of emergency a timely referral, both the parties have made an understanding that in case at hospital of first part the treatment/procedure for any disease/ailment is not available or diagnostic/medical facility is not available or there is no availability of beds, the first party shall refer/transfer the patient to the Hospital of second party for further management.
- E. WHEREAS, the Parties wish to set forth terms and conditions under which both the parties shall act;

NOW THEREFORE, the Parties, in consideration of the above and the mutual promises set forth below, agree as follows:

1. That in following circumstances the first part shall refer/transfer patients to the hospital of second part for further management:-
 - (a) In case of non-availability of beds at S.K. Memorial Hospital, i.e. at hospital of the first part.
 - (b) In case the specific procedure/facility/service to treat particular disease/ailment of the patient is not available in the hospital of the first part.
 - (c) In case particular diagnostic facility is not available at the first party's hospital, but available at the hospital of second part.
 - (d) In any other case, where the first party is of the opinion that because of availability of advance facility or super-specialist doctors at the hospital of the second part, the patient may get better treatment and care.
2. That in aforesaid circumstances the first party shall discuss the disease/ailment of the patient with the officers/doctors of the second party and along with complete set of patient records shall refer/transfer the patient to the hospital of the second part for further management.
3. That in emergency circumstances the First party shall make appropriate transportation arrangements and medical escort (if needed) for the patient, so that the patient could be safely transferred from the hospital of the first part to the hospital of the second part. The hospital of the first part shall also furnish complete set of patient record to the second party and inform the second party in advance regarding referred/transferred emergency case so that the patient gets appropriate care at the time of arrival at hospital of the second part.
4. That this agreement shall be in force for a period of two years (24 months) and can be terminated by either party by giving two (2) month advance notice.
5. That both the parties have nominated following officers as single point of contact for inquiry regarding any facility or for giving advance information related to referral/transfer cases to the hospital of second part:-
