About Conference:

Ancient Indian civilizations, like the Vedic Civilization, the Sindhu-Sarasvati Civilization, and the Aryan civilization, are distinguished by their profound thought and wisdom. The Vedas, Upanishads, Sanskrit, Yoga, Ayurveda, Naturopathy, History, Mathematics, Fine Arts, Astronomy, etc. are a part of these civilizations. It is essential to recognize the importance of these systems in the contemporary world. Pioneered by our great sages of India, they help us achieve wellness and wisdom. It is our duty to spread this great knowledge to the new generation for their self-improvement. The two-day interactive sessions at this international conference are being organised by the School of Yoga Sciences, Swami Rama Himalayan University. This conference will provide a platform to all Yoga aspirants, educational or academics experts, yoga lovers, scholars, students, doctors, historians, Indian traditional knowledge experts, and other field experts to come together and share their views and experiences with the mass for society's betterment. This international conference will provide an opportunity for researchers to present their findings on an enormous virtual platform.
